So let me keep it real; I am not perfect. I don't believe I'm doing everything right. The truth is, I've made many bad decisions and I'm sure there will be more. However, I love Jesus Christ with every inch of my being. He delivered me from loneliness and hopelessness. He's opened doors for me in which I would've never imagined. He's the reason I exist. The first step to freedom is to accept all your truths. John 8:32 says, "And you know the truth will set you free". I encourage you to embrace your "mess". God takes our messy situations and creates messages to teach others. I've learned not to feel ashamed of my mistakes because I know God used flawed people to share hope in a flawed world. Embrace your imperfections. Use them to help others because God creates purpose out of pain.

Sermon Topic: "Do You Know Him"

Philippians 3:1-10 (MSG)

"We come in contact with believers who indicate that they know Christ. But when faced with challenges we act as if he is a complete stranger. The Apostle Paul in his letter to Philippians says "That I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death."

Philippians 3:10 (MSG)

Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;
